Tender Notice

Mercy Corps is a non-religious, non-profit and non-governmental international humanitarian organization and aims to provide a physically and emotionally secure environment where women and adolescent girls can gather, develop social networks, acquire new skills, and access psychosocial support services.

Mercy Corps is seeking a NNGO/s to manage safe spaces where women and girls, especially those from internally displaced persons (IDP) communities and vulnerable host communities, can access structured programs designed to enhance their well-being, skills, and empowerment. The safe spaces will facilitate access to life skills training, psychosocial support, and pathways to additional services, including education and livelihoods. The project is located at Gedaref State, Sudan (Basonda, Alfashaga, Alfao, Alrahad, Almafaza) localities.

Qualifications of the Subcontractor:

- Demonstrated experience in implementing gender-based programming and women's empowerment initiatives.
- Expertise in providing psychosocial support and case management services.
- Experience working with IDP and refugee populations in conflict-affected areas.
- Strong community engagement and mobilization capacity.
- Experience working with public and private stakeholders (Government and market)
- Proven financial and administrative capability to manage project funds and reporting requirements.
